Authorization for Juvenile Records Release to Military Recruiters

Youth Name

Date of Request

JDIS #

DOB:

Military Branch

Recruiter Name

Effective November 9, 2008, the Linn County Juvenile Department changed its' practice in regards to providing juvenile arrest records and information to military recruiters. This policy now requires youth to come to the Juvenile Department in person to make the request for records. You are required to show a State-Issued photo ID and pay a $5.00 processing fee.

Effective January 21, 2011, youth making a request for their records for the purposes of joining any branch of the United States Military will now need to complete this authorization form to release records to any military recruiter. The youth or the military recruiter authorized on this form may pick up the youth's records in person on the third business day from the date of request.

I, _____, (youth name) do hereby authorize the Linn County Juvenile Department to release the following records to the military recruiter named above; copies of Formal Accountability Agreement(s) and/or copies of Probation Orders, and Dismissals associated with any & all charges on my juvenile record.
